Women Make Primary Results Uncertain

21,284 People Living in Beloit Says Census Report

Growth of 6,159 in Ten Years Reported for the Gate City, or 40.7 Per Cent as Against Janesville 31.6.

Report of the census bureau this morning gives the population of Beloit as 21,284, a gain of 6,159, or 40.7 per cent over 1910.

These figures show that Beloit has 2,991 more population than Janesville and made a larger gain in percentage in the last ten years than the county seat.

But ten years ago the population of Janesville was 13,894 and of Beloit, 15,125. Beloit was then only 1,231 ahead of Janesville. In the ten years Janesville grew 4,399 or 1760 less than the census shows for Beloit.

It is the conservative opinion of those acquainted with both cities that a census at the present time would show a considerable growth since the census was taken, for both with Janesville close to or ahead of Beloit.

It again presents the housing problem to Janesville in its more serious aspect.

Other census figures are: Port Chester, N. Y., 16,578, increase 3,764, or 29.4 per cent. Del Rio, Texas, 10,580, incorporated since 1910. Key West, Fla., 13,030, decrease 906, or 4.5 per cent. Galveston, Texas, 5,648, increase 1,024, or 12.4 per cent. Fernin, Tex., 10,050, increase 4,125, or 80.1 per cent.

Voting for the first time in the history of Wisconsin, women added an element of uncertainty to the result today. There were many more than anticipated. Reports from the country districts show that the women are voting there. The general percentage is about 30 per cent of the men vote.

First Woman to Vote Mrs. T. P. Burns was conceded the first woman to vote here today. She cast her ballot at the Fifth ward polls at 8:30 a. m. Another early woman voter was Mrs. E. L. Randolph, Fourth ward. She entered the booth at 7 a. m.

Randolph was she any more puzzled about the tickets or candidates than the men. Few men who came but took a few minutes to look over the candidates for the minor state offices.

The lieutenant governorship was a question many failed to solve. The La Follette vote was wanted for Cummings, but the others were divided between Dr. Pullen and Chas. Everett.

There were only a few women who came to the polls accompanied by the friend husband. She had declared her independence and wanted to vote for Cummings, but the others were divided between Dr. Pullen and Chas. Everett.

MacSwiney Is Reported as Much Weaker

London, Sept. 7.—Jerence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who has been on a hunger strike since August 12 and for several days has been in a critical condition in Belton prison, was reported appreciably weaker this morning, but conscious and able to speak. Father Dominic, private chaplain to MacSwiney, said the prisoner was suffering intensely from the lack of food and the strain of his confinement.

Regarding the statement by premier Lloyd George indicating that Mayor MacSwiney probably would be released if guarantees were given that the murderers of police in Ireland would be executed, Father Dominic said the mayor had no authority to make any promise for the cessation of the hunger strike, but he was only an individual Sinn Feiner.

"If the government is satisfied that murderers are taking place," Father Dominic said, "the mayor will capture the murderers and execute them."

In a message to sympathizers with Mayor MacSwiney today said: "I wish to express to all the Irish people and many sympathizers with Ireland's cause in America my deepest appreciation of the messages and cables I have received from them every since my husband started hunger striking 25 days ago. In contrast with those among the English people who are refusing to handle English shipping, this is likely to bring home to the minds of Lloyd George and the English government what may be the effect throughout the world of the doing to death of my husband in an English jail."

MacSwiney speaking to the Associated Press correspondents with composure, declared today: "I am positive, he will see his task through. Of course it is only his conviction he is fighting for, the ideal that has only been reconciled to hearing of his death. His battle is mine, for it is one I took on myself while he was in England under a deportation order."

Italian Strikers Hide Behind Women to Hold Occupied Factories

Rome, Sept. 7.—Government officials will open negotiations with the government today to solve the problem presented by the seizure by workers of metal factories throughout Italy.

It is estimated 400 of the largest metal works in Italy have been occupied by mechanics and workers, and the movement is expanding, threatening to extend to the extreme southern end of the peninsula. Steps have been taken by the government to preserve order during the period when a general offensive against all industries is threatened.

Strikers here believed last night that an effort would be made by the police, to take possession of some plants that had been occupied by workers. They sounded an alarm and immediately crowds of women and children rushed to the occupied plants to fight relatives to this, according to the police, indicates the strikers have agreed, in case of an attack to protect themselves by the presence of women, and children. All night armored cars and armed cyclists patrolled the streets and machine guns were placed in commanding positions along thoroughfares, while the idly curious were driven from the streets by carabinieri.

Sates Broken Open. In some plants near Turin, the workers have broken open safes and taken money to pay the wages they claim are due them, says a dispatch. At the Fiat automobile works, strong boxes have been rifled and documents and correspondence for many years have been taken, the newspaper says. Altogether, 15 Fiat factories, which employ thousands of workers, are in the hands of the men.

LABOR TURNS OUT ENMASSE FOR BIG DAY AT RIVERSIDE

FIRST BIG CELEBRATION IS DECLARED HUGE SUCCESS.

THOUSANDS THERE Day One Continuous Round of Pleasure—Labor Officials Elated.

Riverside park, the center of the city's first great Labor day celebration, was the scene for thousands of people from the four corners of the county yesterday.

The long program of sports and amusements, the music, dancing, spanking and the ideal weather attracted almost 5,000 people to the park. The midway was thronged with people eating "hot dogs," drinking pop, listening to the two bands that played at either end of the park, throwing at the nigger babies, and trying their luck at the kewpie dolls.

The dance hall was crowded throughout the afternoon. People tried themselves along the windows to watch the dancers and listen to the special eight piece orchestra that played during the entire afternoon.

Many Take Lunches. New concessions were erected along the midway: ice cream stands, lunch counters, and amusement tents stretched from the north end of the pavilion almost to the merry-go-round.

In the shade of the trees at the north end of the park, many people congregated to watch the children and the bathers and listen to the Bower City band that played almost continuously from noon until evening. Scores of people brought basket lunches and remained throughout the evening.

The merry-go-round was as usual the joy of the kiddies. On every turn, each holding wooden horses, a happy, laughing young crowd of children was seen.

COX CHARGES OF CROOKED FUNDS BASED ON GUESS

CAMPAIGN MANAGER FOR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE HAS NO NAMES OR AMOUNTS, COX HAND CALLED

Candidate Has Nothing in Addition to What Moore Presents to Back His "Exposure."

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The senatorial committee investigating campaign expenditures "is not seeking the best evidence" to prove Gov. Cox's charges against the republican party, Edmund H. Moore, Youngstown, the governor's personal representative, told the committee on the stand today.

Moore told Senator Kenyon there were men better able to tell of the republican plans than he or Gov. Cox, and asked why Colonel William Thompson, New York, chairman of the republican ways and means committee, and 60 men of the paid organization, were not called.

All Is "No Evidence." Governor Cox has no evidence in support of his charges outside of what Moore has brought to Chicago with him, the witness said. As he spoke he unfolded a massive brief case and took out a stack of papers that apparently numbered several hundred. Gov. Cox sent him to Chicago, Mr. Moore said, to "give the committee the list from whom the senators could get the information to substantiate the governor's charges." He mentioned Harry M. Blair, first assistant to Fred W. Upham, republican national treasurer, and several other employees of Upham's office.

Wants Committee to Get It. The chairman asked Mr. Moore if he had said that the committee was not seeking the evidence to prove Gov. Cox's charges.

"You don't need to get angry," Senator Kenyon said.

"I am not getting angry. What I said was that you were not seeking the best evidence. And I say it again. You are not."

Did not say he was sure that Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the republican national committee, would not testify to untruths, but he was quite sure that the republican official was a victim of either mistakes or bad bookkeeping when he testified concerning the quotas assigned various states.

Based on Hearsay. Senator Kenyon read charges from Gov. Cox's Wheeling speech to the effect that "powerful interests" were scheming to buy the election of 1920. He also read a South Bend speech, that so far as republican contributions were concerned, "the sky is the limit."

He said that $500,000 had been raised in Ohio, "in the twinkling of an eye."

Answering Senator Kenyon's direct question for names of men who knew about the Ohio fund, Mr. Moore went into a long explanation of the Ohio fund, the republican campaign fund organization. He said it was headed by Colonel Thompson and had as state chairmen, men, and several others, a list described as "of commanding influence."

Making a Guess Only. State Chairman, he said, appointed chairmen of local ways and means committees.

"I found that, usually in Ohio these local chairmen were manufacturers," said Mr. Moore.

The witness reiterated the charges that specific quotas were assigned to the various counties, and said: "But these local organizations were largely scenery. The real workers for funds were paid men, men like Harry M. Blair, assistant to Mr. Upham."

Gives His Idea on Fund Raising. He said Blair had under his supervision, in charge of sections of the county.

"These are the professional money raisers," said Mr. Moore.

To the public these paid directors are camouflaged as "executive secretaries of the ways and means committees," said the witness.

A "national committee" is also a part of the republican finance organization, said Mr. Moore. These men went in after the organization headed by Col. Thompson had collected "from the cream list."

Had Heard Many Things. Senator Kenyon asked for more about the alleged Ohio fund. Gov. Cox says that $500,000 was raised in the twinkling of an eye," the senator said.

"Yes, and I have heard it was (Continued on Page 5.)"

Paul Davis, a 19-year-old soldier, stationed on the 318th Central Postal Directory, was killed Saturday afternoon when his speeding motorcycle struck the Thomas street railroad grade in Brodhead and was thrown turtle.

When they struck the grade, I don't know whether they hit a rock or what, but the machine was thrown turtle in the ditch."

An army ambulance from Camp Grant took the body to Rockford.

GRANT'S BIG DOG FRIGHTENS WOMAN

"Wow-w-w-ahh," a woman shrieked and stood paralyzed in front of the Northwestern station last night.

"A lion," she wailed, and remained motionless.

From the dusky shadows a huge St. Bernard dog shambled across the street to the New Commercial hotel.

The light from the street corner disclosed the identity of the lion-like dog and quelled the frightened woman's fears.

Emboldened by the confusion her cries had created, she hastened up the dog street.

The dog belongs to Oliver Grant, proprietor of the New Commercial hotel.

Her next appearance on the screen will be "Body and Soul" from William Hurlbut's powerful stage play.

ABOUT THE CHAPLINS

According to reports, Charles Chaplin will remain in Salt Lake City.

He has sold his new comedy, "The Kid," which has been reported as costing $1,000,000.

It is said that Mildred Harris Chaplin, who is suing him for divorce, would restrain him from selling the picture.

In speaking of his plans, Chaplin said: "I have been working on 'The Kid' for two years and I do not propose to lose the fruits of my efforts."

I have invested $300,000, paying a weekly expense account of $5,000 to keep the company. It is a drama of pathos and humor, unlike anything I have ever done and it means everything to me.

"The difficulties between my wife and myself have already had too much to do with the picture. I will be willing to do that at any time. The part I am fighting is the effort to restrain me from selling 'The Kid' in which I have invested almost everything I have."

"The Kid" did not cost $1,000,000. Nothing like it. I have been reputed to be a millionaire, but I am not a rich man by any means.

"I have offered my wife a dignified and substantial settlement, but she seeks to restrain me from selling the picture. Now I am going to remain here until the picture is sold, and there won't be any divorce until it is sold. There is a state law that protects me and prohibits the service of the restraining order on me here."

1000 INCREASE ON SCHOOL ROLLS

All Records Broken in Attendance on Opening Day.

Nearly 1,000 more pupils enrolled in Janesville schools today than on the opening day of any previous year, according to statistics just compiled. About 3,500 is the total enrollment for this year. This includes the high school, grade schools as well as parochial schools.

"This will be a banner year for all the schools in the city," said Frank Hill, city superintendent of schools.

The attendance has increased in nearly every school in the city. The high school enrollment this year is 680 while last year it was only about 535, an increase of over 100 pupils. Attendance in the ward schools has increased over 100.

Jefferson school leads with the largest number of pupils in any of the grade schools, its enrollment being 465. Adams comes second with 351, and Washington third, with 334. The incomplete enrollment for fall semester is as follows: Adams, 351; Washington, 334; Lincoln, 322; Webster, 322, and Jackson, 285.

The two Catholic parochial schools, St. Mary's and St. Patrick's have a combined attendance of 500.

According to F. J. Lawton, head of the training school, its enrollment for this year will be about 40. "The number of those enrolling at the vocational school is indefinite," said J. M. Dorrance, director of this school, "but it is the heaviest it has ever been on the first day."

MANY ENCORES AT MILLION DOLLAR BAND CONCERT HERE

Harold Bauman's Million Dollar band, appearing Monday afternoon and evening in concert at the Congregational church here under the auspices of the Richard Ellis Janesville post of the American Legion, proved a distinct treat. Opening the program with a series of well-chosen classical numbers played with beautiful expression, skill and power.

After Kelly, a red-haired boy soprano of Alton, appearing on the program as a soloist, the band, composed of a sweet voice of wonderful range and carrying power, he received three curtain calls before the delighted music lovers permitted him to leave the stage.

Of the three instrumental soloists appearing it is difficult to choose the most popular. Erling Sordahl, violinist, received perhaps the longest applause. Robert Bruce, premier Indian cornetist, and Graydon Lower, euphonium soloist, rendered their numbers effectively. Francis Wolfe, soprano, and Corrado Orsini, contralto, were pleasing.

VIRGIN ISLAND IS ONLY PLACE UNDER U. S. THAT IS WET

San Juan, P. R.—Probably the only place under the American flag where prohibition is not in force is in the Virgin Islands where, until congress enacted new laws, the old Danish law remained in force.

The Colonial Council of St. John, which has passed a bill repealing former local legislation for that island, which prohibited the sale of liquor, has specified period after the ending of the war. Similar legislation is pending in the colonial council for the islands of St. Thomas and St. John.

The treaty of sale by which the islands were transferred from Denmark to the United States provided that laws in force at the time of the transfer should remain in force and effect until congress enacted special legislation for the islands. The constitution of the United States, in all of its provisions, is not applicable to the islands and the amendment has no meaning there.

As a war measure the colonial councils, the law-making bodies, passed prohibition acts to be enforced during the war. As a result of the war, where champagne sold for a dollar a bottle and other liquors were equally expensive, and the two other islands gradually became dry. Merchants in St. Thomas, whose business is largely that of supplying ships' stores, have contended that prohibition was one of their greatest handicaps, while the sugar makers in St. John were deprived of a lucrative trade in an important by-product of sugar when they were forced to cease making rum. With war prohibition removed by local legislation, rum making has already been resumed.

Indirectly, however, the Virgin Islands are feeling the force of the United States prohibition laws. Prohibition Director Donaldson has refused to permit the shipment of alcohol to St. Thomas from here to be used in the manufacture of rum, unless the manufacturer of rum is willing to denature their product so that it cannot be used for beverage purposes. The manufacture of rum, one of the chief industries of St. Thomas and St. John.

more than that," Mr. Moore retorted. "In Youngsland, $72,000 was raised. There was nothing secret about it, was there?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"Not then, but there is now," Mr. Moore retorted. "That was before you had started your investigation, and Gov. Cox had made his charges." Fred W. Latham, republican national treasurer, interrupted to tell Mr. Moore that Ohio had raised $178,000 before the convention.

"I understand, Mr. Upham," he said, "that your quota in Ohio was $300,000. If you revised it upward later to $650,000."

500 ATTEND PICNIC NEAR ORFORDVILLE

Norgard Urges Rock County Farmers to Have All Cattle Tested.

More than 500 attended the Community Farm picnic near Orfordville, Wis. This is the largest attendance this year at any picnic of this nature, according to R. T. Glassco, county agricultural agent.

C. E. Norgard, state commissioner of agriculture, was one of the leading speakers. He spoke on tuberculosis of cattle and urged farmers to have all their cattle tested. "The law states that if 50 percent of the farmers fail to have their herds tested for tuberculosis then all the farmers must consent to having their cattle tested. This is done by the state without charge," Mr. Norgard urged. "If you fail to have your cattle tested for tuberculosis then all the farmers must consent to having their cattle tested. This is done by the state without charge."
